

INLPTA NLP (Neuro Linguistic Programming) Master Practitioner Certification

Join us at the Lakeland School of NLP, based in the Mill Yard at Staveley for this 20 day INLPTA NLP Master Practitioner programme. This fully accredited programme will transform your already excellent practitioner skills and will lead to mastery of your self and equip you with the ability to assist others transform themselves. This development programme is intensely personal and powerful, you will be challenged to evolve into your full potential.

Why you will choose this programme:

- You wish to fully understand what motivates people and to appreciate the impact of values within individuals, teams and organisations and how to utilise this knowledge to create a more harmonious environment.
- You want to learn the advanced linguistic patterns that can enable you to master the art of conversational change so that you can influence positive change quickly and effortlessly.
- You want to achieve the gold standard of personal development: maximising your potential to transform and inspire those around you to achieve excellence.

What are you going to learn on this programme:

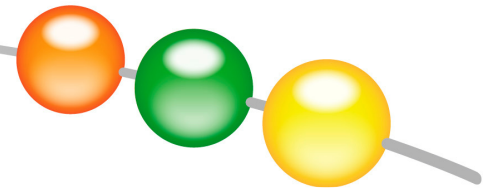

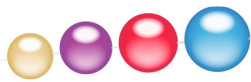

This NLP Master Practitioner training is focussed on your journey towards self mastery. We believe NLP is about freedom and choice - so expect to breakthrough those barriers and self-imposed limitations that have restricted your freedom and choice to date. Your journey to self mastery will give you the opportunity to:

- Embody the foundations and guiding principles of NLP - the 'How' of Excellence at a deeper and more meaningful level.
- Master Conversational Change with an understanding of the most advanced language patterns that will allow you to ethically and ecologically influence a person simply in conversation with them.
- Elicit and utilise personal values to resolve conflicts and trigger motivation towards your ultimate outcome.
- Uncover the complex meta-programmes that create the uniqueness of you and learn how to identify these patterns in other people to influence with integrity.
- Model an individual who represents excellence in a field that you want to develop more competence in, learn how to assimilate this in yourself and also teach others how to replicate this learning.
- Experience a transformational personal breakthrough session and lead someone else through their personal breakthrough session.
- Integrate and synthesize your advanced NLP skills and facilitate your's and other's continuing evolution to mastery.

How you will be assessed?

THE MOST POWERFUL FORM OF COMMUNICATION IS BEHAVIOUR.

You will take your practitioner level skills set and develop a conscious/unconscious embodiment of the attitude, content, process skills of an integrated and congruent Master Practitioner.

As an existing certified practitioner of NLP you will be required to complete the following:

- Attendance and full participation on all sessions;
- Demonstration of behavioural integration;
- Completion and submission of the INLPTA Master Practitioner Written Integration
- Completion and submission of a Modelling Project;

Depending upon your practitioner certification you may be asked to complete an additional programme prior to attending this Master Practitioner programme.
